CAPTION 10 words

Makes Type III Planning Commission decisions advisory only

QUESTION 20 words

Should Type III Planning Commission decisions become recommendations only?

SUMMARY 175 words

This initiative would amend the Development Code to require applicants seeking Type III land use decisions involving discretionary approval criteria to participate in two public hearings before receiving a Type III land use decision. The first public hearing before the Planning Commission would result in a recommendation to the City Council, which would hold a second hearing and may reconsider any of the information presented to the Planning Commission before making a final decision. The current code only requires a second public hearing if the decision of the Planning Commission is appealed.
